House Majority Leader Makes Statement on U.S. Senator Marco Rubio Addressing House Republican Conference

Tallahassee, Fla. — Florida House Majority Leader Carlos Lopez-Cantera (R-Miami) today issued the following statement regarding United States Senator and former Speaker of the Florida House Marco Rubio addressing the House Republican Conference.

“It was an honor to have U.S. Senator Rubio address the Members of the Florida House today. At the national level, he is championing conservatism and fiscal restraint vital to reduce the budget deficit and ensure the future prosperity of our nation. We are thrilled to have a U.S. Senator that shares our values to cut spending and keep taxes low.”

United States Senator Marco Rubio served as Speaker of the Florida House from 2006-2008 and Majority Leader of the Florida House from 2002-2004.
